Dear families!

Can your child imagine the activities and tasks you have to perform in your job?

Talking about work and describing what you do for a living is not always easy. Better to show it!

At "Bring your child to work – DAY" you have the opportunity to do so.

Together with you (or family members, relatives of school friends), your child spends this day at work.

This allows your child to gather a lot of information about your everyday work and impressions of your profession, as well as take home experience of the working world.

The "Bring your child to work – DAY" takes place for the students of the

_____ will take place on _____.

(School)

(Date)

Your child is exempt from classes on this day and is insured as part of the school. You will receive all necessary information sheets and confirmations from the school.

Please ask your company if your child can accompany you on this day.

It is also possible to take your child's schoolmates with you or for your child to accompany family members (siblings, grandparents, etc.). And please have this day confirmed by your company as well!

How can you organize this day?

- Show your child your workplace. Introduce your child to the company and your colleagues.
- What does your day-to-day work look like? What professions are there?
- What products/services do you offer?
- What training is necessary for your job? What interests should you have for this?
- How did you come to this profession and this company?
- If possible, let your child try out smaller activities.
- You can also think about a specific task for your child in advance.
- After the "Bring your child to work – TAG", we ask you to give us feedback online at: www.berufsorientierung.at/feedback . Thank you!

We look forward to your participation!
